Full Mansion Tour

This guided tour focuses on Third Floor and Attic, showing off the Congdon Boys' rooms and even a few rooms that have recently been restored back to their original glory.

Nooks & Crannies Tour

Visitors are invited to come on our most exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of previously restricted areas such as the second floor of the Carriage House, the boathouse and Clara's private balcony.

Servants Tour

This tour explores the servants wing of the mansion exclusively from the perspective of a 1910 staff member and visits spaces not seen on other tours.

Photo Tour*

This tour offers you the freedom to take pictures in the most photogenic spots while providing time to freely experience the museum. Professional and amateur photographers, alike, are welcomed.

Grounds Tour*

This guided walk around the 12-acre estate Congdon property satisfies enthusiastic horticulturists and inquisitive history buffs alike with its interpretation of the vegetable and formal flower gardens.

Flashlight Tour*

All the lights have been turned off. Each group is accompanied by two guides who will illuminate pieces throughout the house, which allows you to appreciate the museum in a new way.

Summer Evening Tour*

Get a guided experience through the mansion, enjoy a narrated walk through our Vegetable & Formal gardens, and finish with a showcase of our rarely opened Boathouse.

Candlelight Christmas Tour*

Find yourself in the mansion being guided by the lights of the Christmas trees. You will be fully immersed into what it must have been like for the Congdons on a magical Christmas evening.

Children 5 & under are free.

During the Christmas season, all tours have a Christmas theme.
